

DETAILS FOR THE FOOD COURT

Introduction:

Founded in 1969, Guru Nanak Dev University is an internationally recognised institution today. Our 8000 students hail from different parts of the country. Like, we are known for our diverse student community and longstanding commitment to curricular innovation and teaching, we aspire to be known for our distinct and professionally managed food courts/food plazas. The University is piloting an all-inclusive appraisal of its food service processes in an endeavour to more closely align our food services with the vision of our establishment and the expectations of our on-campus community by providing high quality nutritious food.

Expression of Interest:

At this time we seek proposals from established National and International food chains which have a credible record of providing superior, innovative food services in the higher education market and are interested in operating and managing Guru Nanak Dev University's food courts/food plazas. We look forward to have a service provider in place who will respond to the needs, and concerns of our students, provide well trained food service workers, and seek to make food at GNDU a distinctive marker. We expect companies to use their creativity and expertise to provide the best possible managed food operation.

To this end, the University is offering two different locations within the main Campus, complete civil work including kitchens, pantries, tuck shop and washing areas etc. ready for fit-out and has the capacity to serve approx. 750 PAX at multiple floors.

The proposed facility at location (1) for the Food court/ Food plaza at the girl's hostel has four units which can also be independently leased to different companies and can also be run as single unit.

DETAILS FOR THE SOUVENIR SHOP

Introduction:

A souvenir or a memento; a keepsake or a token of remembrance is a piece an individual obtains for the reminiscence the owner associates with it. With an objective to provide such articles or objects of remembrance to the university community, faculty, students, staff, and the visitors the institution aims to set up a Souvenir shop inside the premises.

Scope of Operation and Expression of Interest:

Guru Nanak Dev University requests for proposals from established vendors to set up a Souvenir shop in the Department of Publication on the ground floor of BhaiGurdas Library on the campus. The University is offering an area of 120 Sqf. (12' X 10')

The selected vendor shall have the right to sell souvenir articles with university branding. The seller shall be responsible for all cost of selling and marketing manoeuvres. The University branding could be used on apparels, mugs, stationery items like note books, pens, postcards, envelopes, note pads, diaries, wrapping sheets, hand bags, back packs, portfolio bags, and other items of giftware to be sold only inside the University campus. The university, however, will continue to hold its ownership rights on its logo and insignia branding.
